

A Halloween social story

Going Trick-or-Treating

This is my story. My name is _____

Tonight is Halloween! I am going trick-or-treating.

First, I put on my costume. I can bring my headphones if it gets loud.

We walk on the sidewalk. I stay next to my grown-up.

I might see other costumes.
Some look silly or spooky.
They are just pretend.

At the door, I ring the bell or knock. Then I wait.

I say “trick or treat” with my words, a card or my device. I take one treat and say thank you.

If it gets too loud or I feel tired, I can take a break. I can tell my grown-up “all done.”

At home, we look at my treats together. Halloween was fun!

For grown-ups

- Read it together a few times before Halloween, then bring it along.
- Point to each picture as you read.
- Change any words to fit your child. Cross out what doesn't fit, and add your own street or plans.
- Pair it with our free trick-or-treat communication board.
